

UN 2023 Water Conference - Virtual Side Event

Title

Prevention and management of water conflicts in Mexico: novel approaches to the Land-Water- Human Rights - Health nexus

Date

March/24/2023, 11:00am NY time zone (9:00am CDMX)

AGENDA
11:00 - 11:05	Welcome, introductory remarks, speakers' biographical sketch	Miguel Ángel Zerón, Internacional Affaires Unit, Environment Ministry. SEMARNAT
11:06 - 11:13	Speaker 1 Bridges between water conflicts & SDGs accomplishment	Marc Zeitoun, General Director of Geneva Water Hub
11:14 - 11:20	Speaker 2 Science and ethics as inputs for decision making in water conflict management.	Adrián Pedrozo, General Director of the Mexican Institute of Water Technology, IMTA
11:21 - 11:27	Speaker 3 The right to water as a social and cultural good, and not only as an economic good	Raul Benet, Environment & HR defender
11:28 - 11:34	Speaker 4 Communities, health and human rights	Quetzal Tzab Indigenous leader
11:35- 11:45	Speaker 4 Priorities for Water Action	María Luisa Albores Mexico's Minister of the Environment and Natural Resources, SEMARNAT
	Open dialogue with the public through live chat
11:46- 11:50	Conclusions & closing remarks	Miguel Ángel Zerón, SEMARNAT